

(Photo: Damien Burke)

Contents

6	The Vulcan Story		78	The Pilot's View
	The competition	8		Introduction to the Vulcan	80
	Flying scale models	10		Learning to fly the Vulcan	88
	Maiden flight	12		In the descent and landing	92
	The B1 in production	14	96	The Navigator's View
	Enter the B2	15		104	The AEO's View
	The switch to low altitude	23		114	The Crew Chief's View
	Improved capability	27		Pre-flight Inspection	116
	Reconnaissance role	31		Refuelling	116
	Tanker vulcans	32		Crew Chief checks	118
				Post-flight inspection	120
36	When the Vulcan Went to War		122	Vulcan to the Sky
	When diplomacy failed	38		Into private hands	124
	'Looks like we've got a job of work, fellers ...'	39		A chance encounter	125
	'It was dreadfully turbulent ...'	41		Amassing support	125
	Final preparations for attack	42		Enter the Heritage Lottery Fund	127
	'Superfuse!'	44		Lottery success	128
	What did the Vulcan Black Buck missions achieve?	49		Financial problems	129
				A massive job	130
50	Anatomy of the Vulcan B2			First flight post-restoration	130
	Airframe	54		New financial crisis	133
	Olympus engines	63	134	The Restoration of Vulcan XH558
	Engine starting	67		154	Appendices
	Electrical system	68		Appendix A – Avro Vulcan timeline	154
	Powered flying controls	69		Appendix B – Surviving Vulcans	156
	Air brakes	70		Appendix C – Glossary of terms	157
	Fuel system	71	158	Index
	Landing gear	73
	Airborne Auxiliary Power Plant (AAPP)	75
	Bomb bay doors	76
	Brake parachute	77
	Pneumatic system	77			